Annual Meeting and Awards Breakfast
January 29, 2014 at Rutgers Life Sciences Building
With a Presentation by Gabor Fari

(Tinton Falls, NJ) The BioPharma Research Council (BRC) hosted the Annual Meeting and Awards Breakfast on January 29 at the Rutgers Life Sciences Building.

The program acknowledged "Outstanding Contributors" to the BRC. These honorees have provided services and support that is essential to the success of the events the BRC develop.

Award recipients included:

Terry Stouch, President, Science for Solutions

Sam Kogsamut, Ph.D., Principal, Rudder Serendip LLC

Teri Conte, Region Manager, FUJIFILM Visualsonics

Gabor Fari, Director, Business Development, Strategy Health & Life Sciences, Microsoft

George Karam, Global External Research Lead, Pfizer Pharmaceuticals

Jack Heslin, Enterprise & Key Account Executive, MAKERBOT

Gabor Fari also discussed "Transforming Research and Discovery in the Cloud". The presentation reviewed the key elements of Cloud Computing and the challenges and opportunities it presents to Life Sciences organizations.

The discussion was simulcast and the recordings will become available as they are developed.
